

The Ethnic Heritage Museum

Black History Month Celebration

“A Salute to the Divine 9”

Alpha Kappa Alpha
Alpha Phi Alpha
Delta Sigma Theta
Iota Phi Theta
Kappa Alpha Psi
Omega Psi Phi
Phi Beta Sigma
Sigma Gamma Rho
Zeta Phi Beta

“A salute to the Divine Nine” exhibit at the Ethnic Heritage Museum

every Sunday from 2:00-4:00 from January 29, to April 29, 2012.

There are nine historically Greek letter African American fraternities and sororities. Hear how these service organizations of college educated men and women impact our community in areas from youth development, education, scholarship, health awareness and social action.

Italian Dinner Buffet/“Divine Nine” showcase - Saturday, January 28, 2012

Rockford College, Regents Hall Ticket purchase $35 adult, $15 student. College students required to present ID. Contact for tickets: deruff@hotmail.com, or fmhammad@rockfordpubliclibrary.org.

The unveiling of the exhibit Reception - Sunday, January 29, 2012 from 2:00 – 5:00 p.m. at the Ethnic Heritage Museum, 1129 S. Main Street, Rockford, IL 61102.

Light refreshments will be served.

Chromelight II magazine will be honoring the “Divine Nine” in its January-February 2012 issue.

In honor of Black History Month 2012, Chromelight II magazine, Rockford College and the African American Gallery of the Ethnic Heritage Museum are partnering to provide support for the preservation of Rockford’s African American history.

For more information contact David Ruffin at: deruff1@hotmail.com